Students who responded to this survey were awarded the maximum Pell grant award per the massage therapy program at  $\frac{3}{4}$  time attendance. Students whose award fell below \$1000, received a one-time grant issuance of \$1000. This utilized a total of \$35,584 issued directly to the surveyed students.

This left a remaining $1893.73 of the HEERF III funds, which was divided by the 22 responses received for the SP22 grant distribution. All students, apart from those with a minimum award of $1000, received an additional equal amount of $86.08, and those with a minimum award receiving an additional $86.07.
